

“Eutychus Raised From The Dead!”

Acts 20:7-12

Now on the first day of the week (Sunday), when the Disciples came together to break bread, Paul, ready to depart the next day, spoke (preaching & teaching) to Them and continued His Message until midnight. There were many lamps in the upper room where They (Disciples) were gathered together. And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking (preaching & teaching), He (Eutychus) fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. But Paul went down, fell on Him, and embracing Him said, “Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him.” Now when He (Paul) had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, He departed. And They (Disciples) brought the young man (Eutychus) in alive, and They were [not a little] (greatly) comforted. Acts 20:7-12 (NKJV)

“What Does Paul Refer To When He Says, “His Life is in Him?”

But Paul went down, fell on Him, and embracing Him said, “Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him.” Acts 20:10

Paul Is Refers To Death, Life, & Resurrection As Jesus Does!

So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him. And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher.” But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, “Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well.” When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl. Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, “Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping.” And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead. But He put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, “Little girl, arise.” Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened. Luke 8:40-42 & 49-56

Paul Is Referring To The Previous Complete Restorations Of Life

In The Lives Of The Old Testament Prophets - Elijah & Elisha!

But Paul went down, fell on Him, and embracing Him said, “Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him.” Acts 20:10

Self-Study - Elijah The Prophet - 1st Kings 17:17-24

Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him. So she said to Elijah, “What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?” And He (Elijah) said to her, “Give me your son!” So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. Then he cried out to the Lord and said, “O Lord my God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?” And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the Lord and said, “O Lord My God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him.” Then the Lord heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he revived. And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, “See, your son lives!” Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now by this I know that you are a Man of God, and that the Word of the Lord in your mouth is the Truth.” 1st Kings 17:17-24

Self-Study - Elisha The Prophet - 2nd Kings 4:18-20 & 27-37

And the child grew. Now it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers. And he said to his father, “My head, my head!” So he said to a servant, “Carry him to his mother.” When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died. ... Now when she came to the man of God at the hill, she caught him by the feet, but Gehazi came near to push her away. But the man of God said, “Let her alone; for her soul is in deep distress, and the Lord has hidden it from me, and has not told me.” So she said, “Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say, ‘Do not deceive me?’” ...

... Then he said to Gehazi, “Get yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but lay my staff on the face of the child.” And the mother of the child said, “As the Lord lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.” So he (Elisha) arose and followed her. Now Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he went back to meet him, and told him, saying, “The child has not awakened.” When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed. He went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the Lord. And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm. He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up and stretched himself out on him; then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi and said, “Call this Shunammite woman.” So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, “Pick up your son.” So she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; then she picked up her son and went out.
